Western Canada B-4(c) (1911-12) Each 7

PROFILE

Vertical Scale : 1000 feet to an inch.

NOTE : The elevations are referred to an assumed elevation of 4000 feet at the northeast corner Section 36, Township 64, Range 1, West of Sixth Meridian.

SKETCH MAP OF THE SIXTEENTH BASE LINE
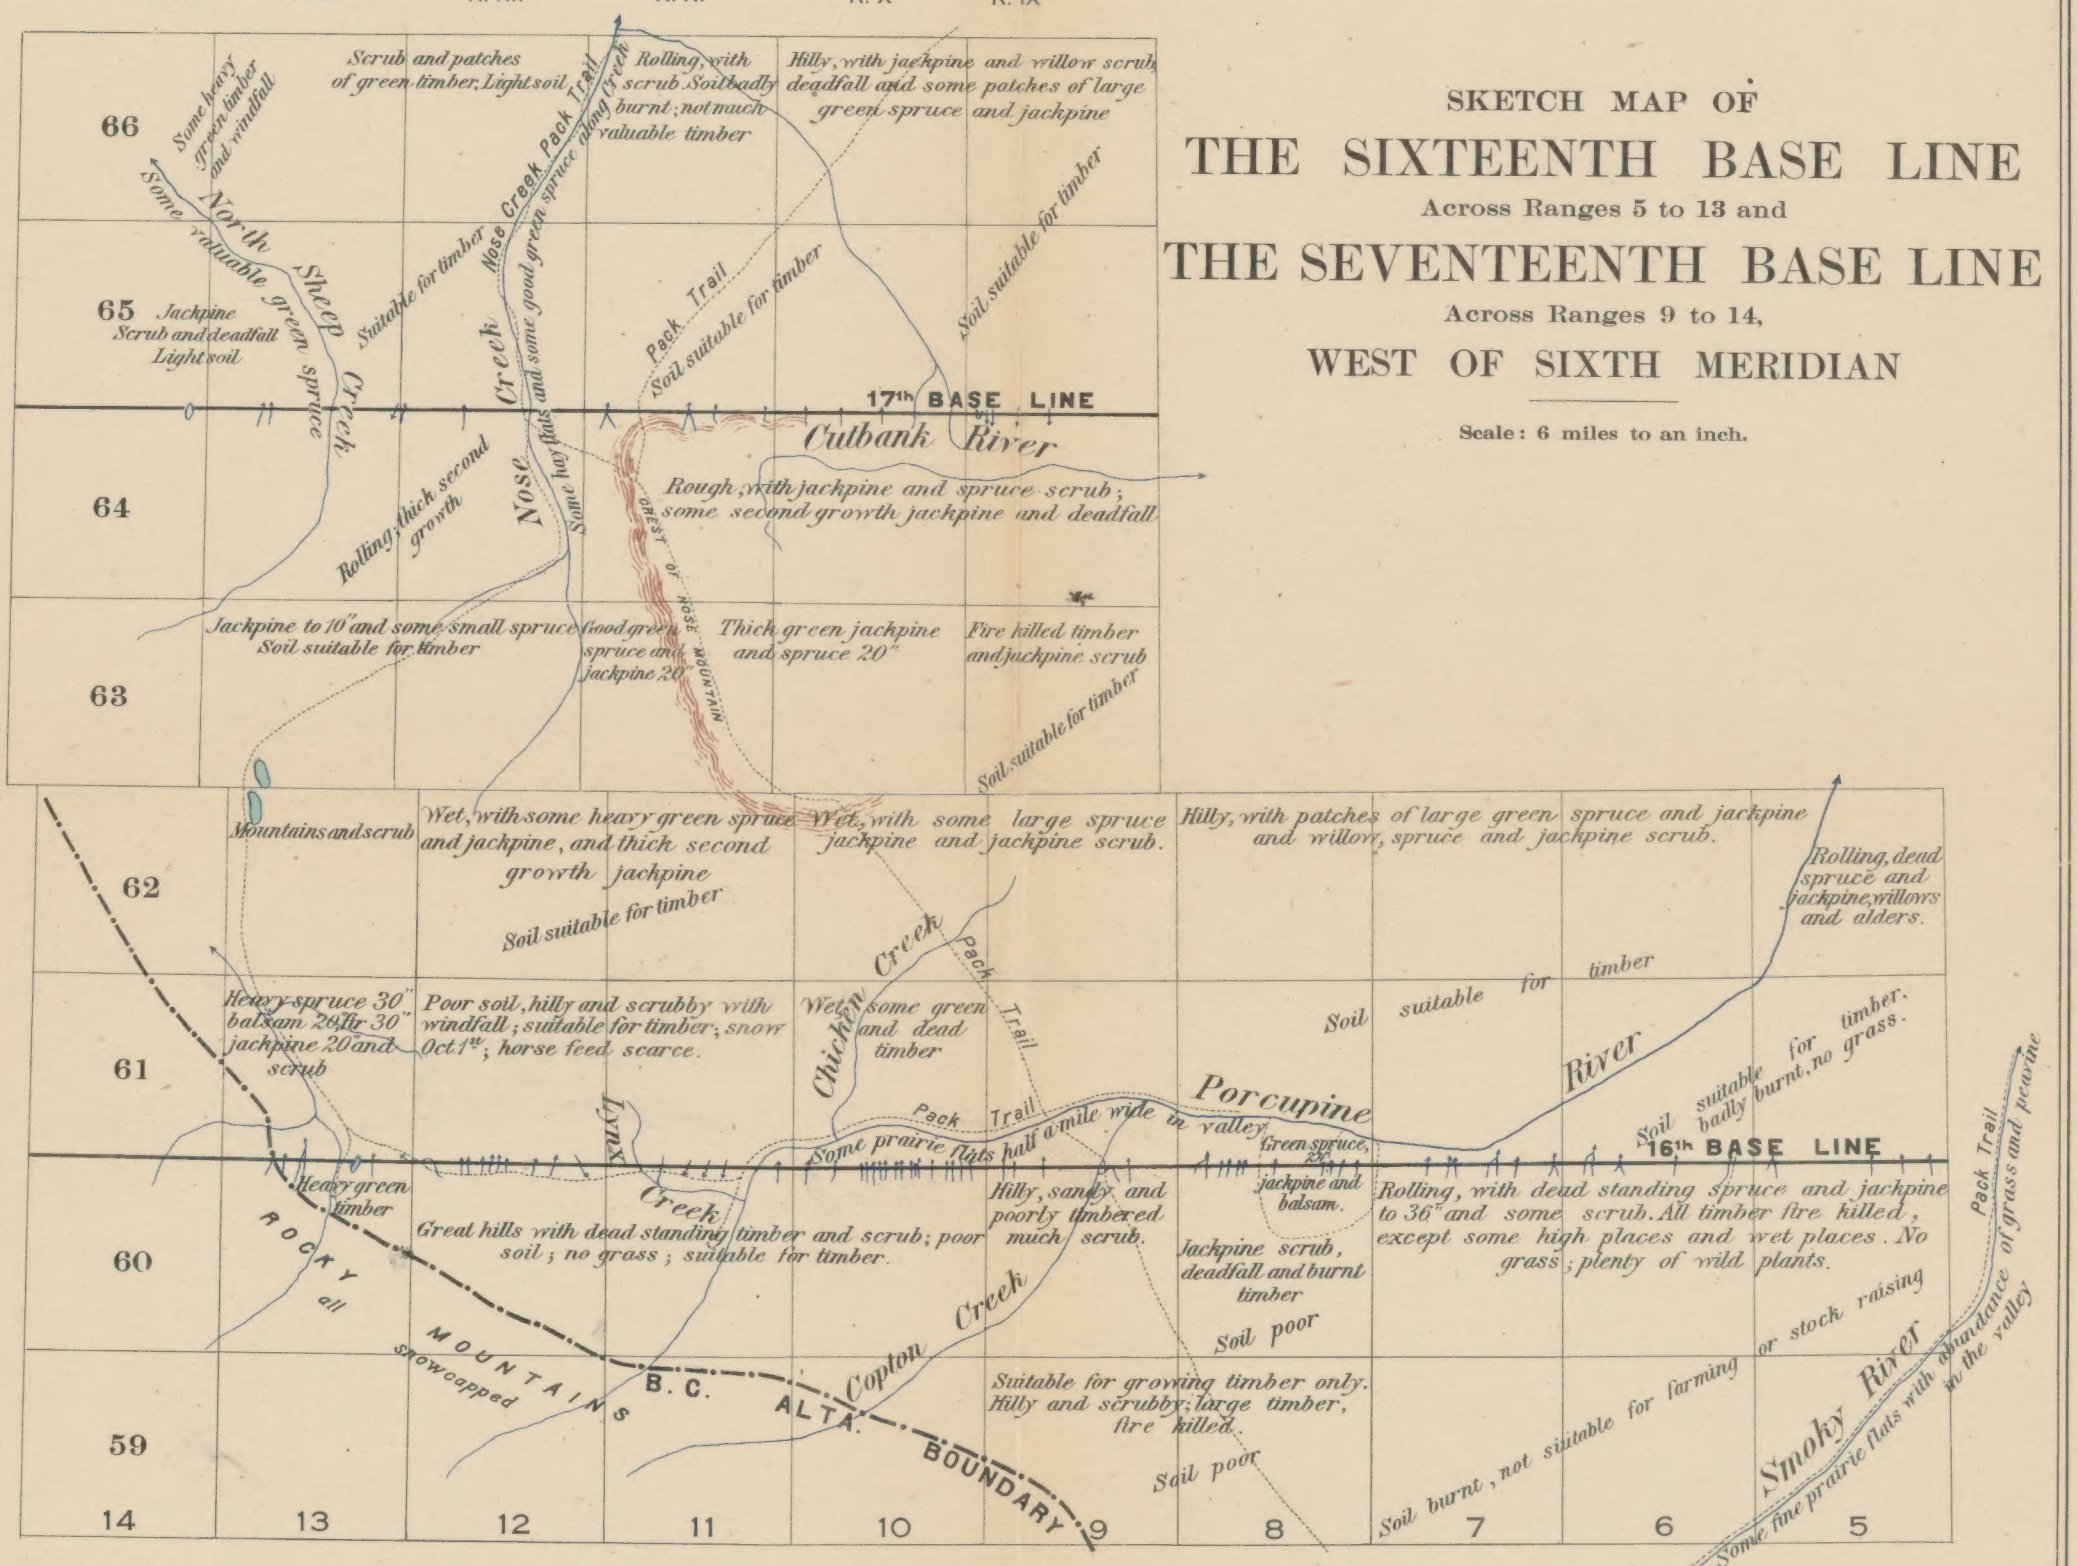
Across Ranges 5 to 13 and
THE SEVENTEENTH BASE LINE
Across Ranges 9 to 14,
WEST OF SIXTH MERIDIAN

Scale : 6 miles to an inch.



66
65
64
63
62
61
60
59
14
13
12
11
10
9
8
7
6
5
Some heavy green timber and windfall
North Sheep Creek
Some valuable green spruce
Scrub and patches of green timber, Light soil
Rolling, with scrub. Soil badly burnt; not much valuable timber
Hilly, with jackpine and willow scrub deadfall and some patches of large green spruce and jackpine
Nose Creek Pack Trail
Suitable for timber
Pack Trail
Soil suitable for timber
Soil suitable for timber
Jackpine Scrub and deadfall Light soil
17th BASE LINE
Culbank River
Rough, with jackpine and spruce scrub; some second growth jackpine and deadfall
Rolling, thick second growth
Nose Creek
Some hay flats and some good green spruce along creek
CREST OF NOSE MOUNTAIN
Jackpine to 10" and some small spruce Soil suitable for timber
Good green spruce and jackpine 20"
Thick green jackpine and spruce 20"
Fire killed timber and jackpine scrub
Soil suitable for timber
Mountains and scrub
Wet, with some heavy green spruce and jackpine, and thick second growth jackpine
Soil suitable for timber
Wet, with some large spruce jackpine and jackpine scrub.
Hilly, with patches of large green spruce and jackpine and willow, spruce and jackpine scrub.
Rolling, dead spruce and jackpine, willows and alders.
Chicken Creek
Pack Trail
Heavy spruce 30" balsam 20" fir 30" jackpine 20" and scrub
Poor soil, hilly and scrubby with windfall; suitable for timber; snow Oct 1st; horse feed scarce.
Wet, some green and dead timber
Soil suitable for timber
Porcupine River
Lynx Creek
Pack Trail
Some prairie flats half a mile wide in valley
Green spruce, 22" jackpine and balsam.
Soil suitable for timber. badly burnt, no grass.
16th BASE LINE
Heavy green timber
Great hills with dead standing timber and scrub; poor soil; no grass; suitable for timber.
Hilly, sandy and poorly timbered much scrub.
Rolling, with dead standing spruce and jackpine to 36" and some scrub. All timber fire killed, except some high places and wet places. No grass; plenty of wild plants.
Pack Trail
Rocky Mountains
Snowcapped
B. C.
ALTA.
BOUNDARY
Copton Creek
Jackpine scrub, deadfall and burnt timber
Soil poor
Suitable for growing timber only. Hilly and scrubby; large timber, fire killed.
Soil poor
Soil burnt, not suitable for farming
Smoky River
Some fine prairie flats with abundance of grass and prairie or stock raising in the valleys

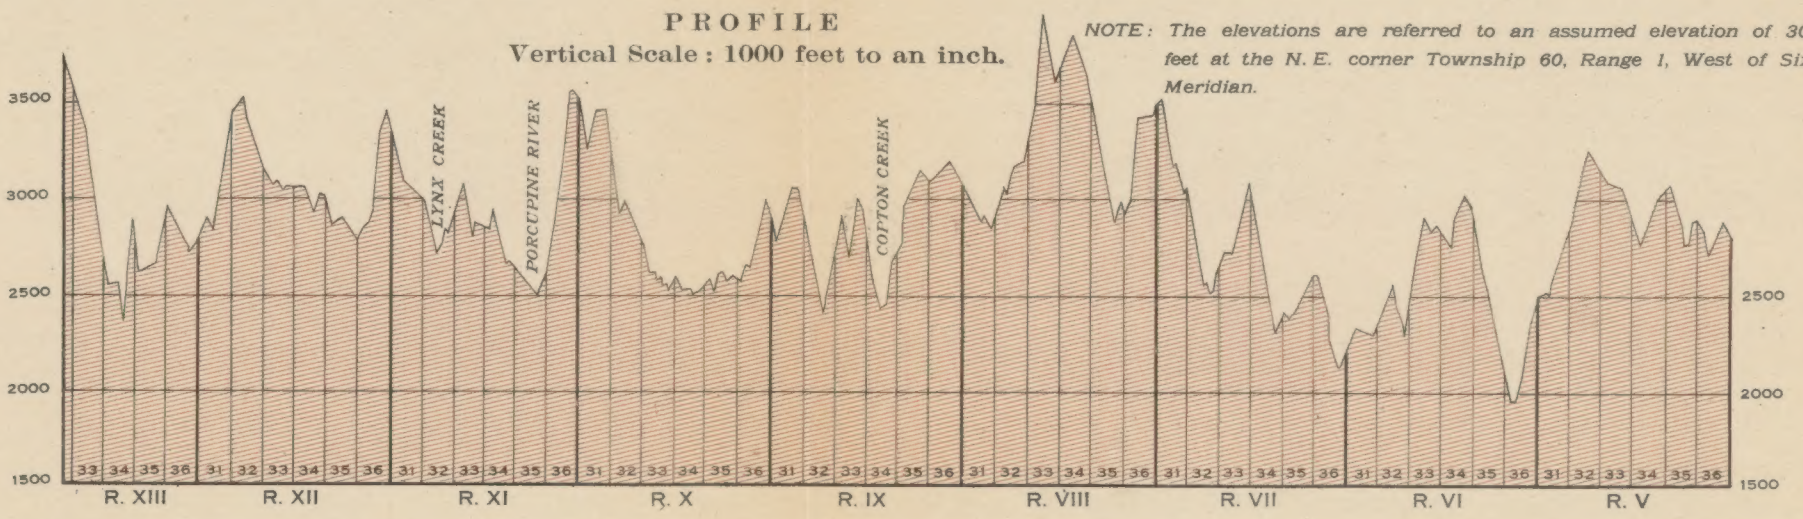
PROFILE

Vertical Scale : 1000 feet to an inch.


NOTE : The elevations are referred to an assumed elevation of 3000 feet at the N. E. corner Township 60, Range 1, West of Sixth Meridian.